Collaboration and innovation is the main goal of this design. Promote team work, enhance the activities and quality of work and productivity are also the aim. To increase the chance of team work, the space has more collaborative space that can be accessed easily. If also provide various of function, multi-purpose or even more leisure, more freedom spaces without just sitting on the desk. The way the space is designed with numerous type of seats to provide a different function for the employees became an important factor.

The whole design and material picked is to link up with the original site building and also create an industrial and contemporary feeling with little touch of bright colours to stimulate the collaboration and innovation of the office.
